Gonzalo Stoll

Hello! My name is Gonzalo, but you can call me Gonza. I'm an Argentinian/Italian currently living in Copenhagen, Denmark. I'm an experienced frontend developer with an honest taste for clean/readable code and a keen eye for visual details. I've worked with JavaScript, HTML and CSS (Scss) for more than 6 years, and also taught some seminars about them.

I've been involved in many cross-functional and domain-specific teams, keeping a great relationship with Product Managers, Designers and Tech Leads, thus always striving to nurture and promote teamwork and team effort.

I'm a sociable and open minded guy who would enjoy sharing a chat whenever possible. Some of my hobbies include writing screenplays and watching movies (Star Wars fan).

I hope to hear from you soon!
